The Speakership--Banquet--President's Message--Appointments--Removals, etc.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The fight for the Speakership between the Kerr and Randall factions grows more intense as the time approaches for final action. The principals are rarely seen in public. They remain in their rooms, where they are continually visited by their friends, who bring them news of how the battle goes. Senator Gordon today said that the relation of the South and its attitude in this matter is just as it should be. The South is not united, and he thought they were acting very wisely; that any attempt to unite upon a candidate by the South would put that section in the attitude of attempting to dictate the selection. He expressed the hope that the Southern members would go into caucus, and pledged, and when there act as the best interests of the future of the Democratic party might demand. He does not think the Southern members are all for Kerr, but that Randall has many friends from that section. Randall's gallant fight upon the "Force Bill" last winter, and his securing its defeat by filibustering, gained him many friends in the South, and the list has been further increased by the declaration of the managers of the Texas Pacific railroad scheme that Mr. Randall is not unfriendly to that enterprise, and that if elected Speaker he will throw no obstacles in the way of its having a fair show in committee before the House.

The Texas Pacific scheme, it is said, can control between eighty and ninety Democratic votes, and its friends do not propose to cast their influence for any man for Speaker who is known to be unfriendly to them. The friends of Mr. Kerr are, however, today very anxious of success. They profess to have made a careful canvass of members now in the city, and claim ninety votes for Kerr on the first ballot. Mr. Randall says he is perfectly satisfied with the outlook. A meeting of the Pennsylvania members was held last evening, and it is claimed that they are unanimously for Randall. The citizens of this District are preparing to give the members of the Forty-fourth Congress a grand banquet.

The message of the President will not be ready for transmission to Congress until Tuesday at noon. It will be much larger than any previous message of President Grant, and will contain probably 15,000 words. The greater portion of the message has already been written. From its great length it is surmised that it will be by far the most interesting and important document that President Grant has ever laid before Congress. The position of Commissioner of Indian Affairs has been tendered to a prominent citizen of New Jersey, who has the offer under consideration, and will probably make known his decision today. The chances seem favorable for his acceptance.

The steamer King Richard, of the King line, has been appointed to take the mails for South America and the West Indies, via St. Thomas, and will sail from Baltimore for Rio Janeiro on the 9th inst. at 4 P. M.

Secretary Chandler yesterday removed nine clerks in the Land Office. The reason assigned for the removals is a necessity for the reduction of force to keep within the appropriation made for clerical force in this bureau. Secretary Brewster today appointed A. Wilson, Esq., of Louisville, Ky., to be chief clerk of the Treasury Department. Mr. Wilson was at one time the junior law partner of the firm of Brewster, Harlan & Co., and is at present law partner of Gen. John M. Harlan at Louisville.

He will enter upon the discharge of his duties at an early day.

New York.

All for Love--O'Connor Improving--New in Ship Architecture--Fashionable Wedding.

New York, Dec. 2.—Miss Alice Myers, a young and accomplished daughter of M. S. Myers, real estate agent, 279 Broadway, committed suicide by jumping from the window of the third story of her residence. The case was not made public until today. It appears she had recently returned from Europe, where she had encountered a disappointment in love matters which affected her mind seriously. She attempted to jump overboard from the steamer, but was prevented. Charles O'Connor's physicians stated last night that they had every hope of his recovery.

A new ship of 1,500 tons register, just launched at Newburyport, Mass., has been named Brown Brothers, out of compliment to the eminent banking firm of that name in this city. She is to be employed in the novel enterprise of bringing all the skill known to art that the Eastern markets. This ship has been constructed with the view to meeting all the difficulties in this connection by using extra fastenings and best and most durable timber, in order to give strength to the hull, as the ordinary-built vessels are not strong enough to carry such large sticks of timber as will be transported with safety by the ship Brown Brothers. The great object in her construction was to obtain superior strength, and no expense has been spared in obtaining the best materials, and these have been put together in her construction with all the skill known to art that the desired end might be attained.

Nautical judges pronounce her one of the strongest vessels ever launched in American waters. She will cost above $100,000.

A very fashionable wedding took place yesterday, the parties being Miss Mamie Harrison, daughter of Commodore C. K. Garrison, and a gentleman from St. Louis, a member of the St. Louis bar. On the auspicious occasion the famous gold service, which was presented to the Commodore when he was Mayor of San Francisco, was used, and attracted general admiration.

A FRIENDLY ACT--PLEADING FOR THE HERZEGOVINIANS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Patrick Torey last night saturated his wife's clothes thoroughly with coal oil and then set them on fire. Her screams brought the neighbors, who, it says, must die in a badly burned that she can not live. Torey, who was at the time in a half-drunken condition, was taken in charge by the officers and is now in prison. A private letter from Ragusa, in Dalmatia, gives a heart-rending account of the sufferings of the Herzegovinian refugees, who, it says, must die in large numbers the winter from cold and hunger unless outside aid can be secured. It makes an earnest appeal in behalf of these people, whose only sin, it says, is that they are Christians.

BROOKLYN, N.Y., Dec. 2.—The pipes in the box factory of E. C. Smith, corner of Ash and Oakland streets, were frozen up, and the men employed there were set to work to thaw them out. They set the place on fire and burned it up, causing a loss of $5,000. It was insured in city companies.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—A fire occurred yesterday in the large five-story tenement, No. 20 Thomas street, commencing in the basement and filling the building with a dense volume of smoke that almost suffocated the firemen who attempted to enter it. The stairs were quickly devoured by the flames, thus cutting off all escape to the crowd of striking women and children in the building. They flocked to the windows, screaming for aid. Several firemen bravely entered the burning building from the house adjoining, and rescued all in the house, chiefly women and children, from a death which appeared inevitable. Several were rescued in an unconscious condition, owing to the dense smoke and cooking heat of the fire. Had the fire occurred at night the loss of life must have been terrible. The loss by fire will not exceed $10,000.

A Sensation--Freight Advance.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—A decided sensation was created here late yesterday afternoon by the discovery of the bodies of a beautiful woman and a female infant, packed in a barrel at the Adams Express Company office. The woman's body was decimated at all clothing except stockings. The bodies were taken to morgue. The barrel was directed to S. K. Green & Co., Iowa City, Iowa. The Truckman who took the barrel to the Express office, says he received it at a house near the corner of Twenty-fourth street and Wabash avenue, one of the most aristocratic portions of Chicago.

From all appearances the woman had recently given birth to a child. There were a few marks on the body, but nothing to show how death had ensued.

The General Freight Agents of railroad lines east of Chicago, at a conference in this city yesterday, advanced rates to Buffalo, Cleveland and Detroit, 2 1/2 cents per 100 pounds on fourth-class freight.

SPAIN'S LAST.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—A Herald special cable from Madrid says the reply of Al. to the Government to the Washington Cabinet note goes to show that the Spanish Government is pledged to the work of a gradual emancipation of the slaves in Cuba; to a measure permitting greater freedom of commerce with the Antilles; to the guaranteeing to foreigners an immediate judicial trial; to a judicial hearing in cases where they are arrested and charged with a violation of the Spanish Colonial laws, and to a complete measure of legal redress for acts formerly accomplished by Spain in moments of hastiness. The Madrid Ministerial document, which is couched in a meek spirit, will reach Washington to-day.

The greatest anxiety prevails in Madrid regarding the reception by the American Cabinet of Spain's last dispatch.

A Very Mean Swindler.

In a certain Troy church on Sunday, says the Times of that city, a young man who occupied a seat near the pulpit was evidently greatly embarrassed when the collection was taken up. His pew was about the first in which the collector found a pocket, and he plunged his hand into his pocket, kept the collector waiting a moment, and then quickly thrust a bill—evidently the first he could get out of his wallet—into the basket.

After the service the young man lingered, and when the congregation had retired, approached the gentleman who had charge of the collection, and who was counting it at the time, and remarked that he was a stranger in the city, that he was a poor young man, and had, in the hurry of the moment, put a $10 bill into the collection basket by mistake for a $1 bill. He inquired modestly if it would be unfair to ask for the return of the $10 bill, and the collector, appreciating the stranger's evident frankness and modesty, looked over the collection, and, finding the $10 bill, offered to return it.

The stranger declined, saying he meant to contribute $1, and that, as he had no small change, he would be satisfied if $9 were refunded to him. This was proof positive to the Treasurer that the stranger was really honest, and he accordingly gave him $9, nearly all there was in the basket, with the exception of the bill, and the stranger departed with many thanks and apologies. After the Treasurer reached home he was struck by the appearance of the bill and examined it closely. It was counterfeit.

Our Dan remarked to his wife, last evening, as he left home for the office: "I'll be back by ten o'clock if I don't meet with any serious pull-back." "It won't be well for you to meet with any pull-backs, Daniel, serious or smiling, if I know of it," said his better half, in tones which indicated that she meant it.
